Brooker House (Haus)

Brooker "Haus" appreciates good food, good music and the good ol' outdoors. Brooker holds regular fireside dinners and events and serves as a hub for the organization of outdoor activities. Brooker also hosts many Mountain Club meetings, slideshows, cookouts and parties. The "Haus" regularly hosts student and out-of-town bands in the basement, where they jam until they've danced themselves clean. Brooker Haus residents pride themselves not only in their fire-making capabilities, but also in the community and relationships they have created, and the memories they continue to make.

Distinguished Men of Color

Distinguished Men of Color (DMC) is a cultural organization that works to build a sense of community on campus. Every first Saturday of May, DMC host The Block Party where people come together for good food, music, a 3-on-3 basketball tournament and overall fun. During the year, DMC hosted bi-weekly discussions focusing on education as well as an professor panel that asked looked into Middlebury College's curriculum.

Middlebury College Organic Farm

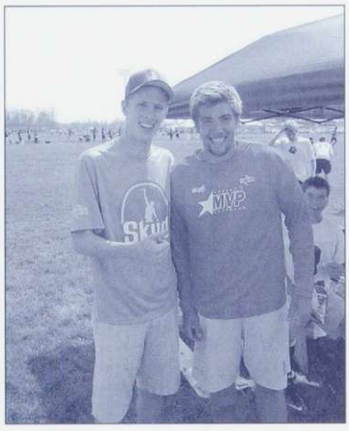
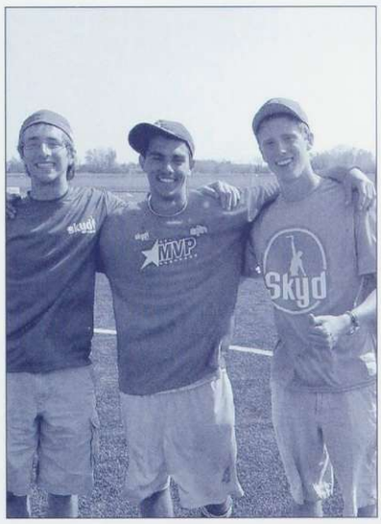
Students and families got their hands dirty during our farm work days.

We built a chicken coop at the Hannaford Career Center in preparation for raising birds this summer!

Men's Ultimate Frisbee

Describing their year in terms of achievements would hardly characterize the Men's Pranksters of 2012–2013. Officially, they placed third in their region on their way to the program's first-ever Division III National Championship. The Pranksters completed their season by winning this championship in Madison, WI, which was largely a result "long time coming" after successfully going to the National Championships four years ago. Furthermore, the men competed all over the country by representing Middlebury's finest ultimate players in Atlanta, Boston, and most of the greater New England region. Finally, for the first time the Men's team hosted the Conference Championships at the college while competing against schools like Dartmouth and Bowdoin. Unofficially, the male Pranksters continued to have their best season ever. They continued to play frisbee in dresses and skirts, had immense amounts of fun, and provided the college campus with plenty of merry making. Look out for the future pranksters as the team only graduated four seniors and is looking forward to continuing the tradition of trying to do their best at having fun while throwing a piece of plastic around in the air.





Mountain Ayers

A community concert in Essex, NY

The Mountain Ayres are Middlebury's only a cappella group dedicated to the enthusiastic appreciation and performance of Renaissance music. We share our musically challenging repertoire with the campus and the wider Middlebury community, performing at many different venues throughout the year. The group is open to all those looking to find a group of dedicated musicians with whom to sing beautiful music and have lots of fun doing so!

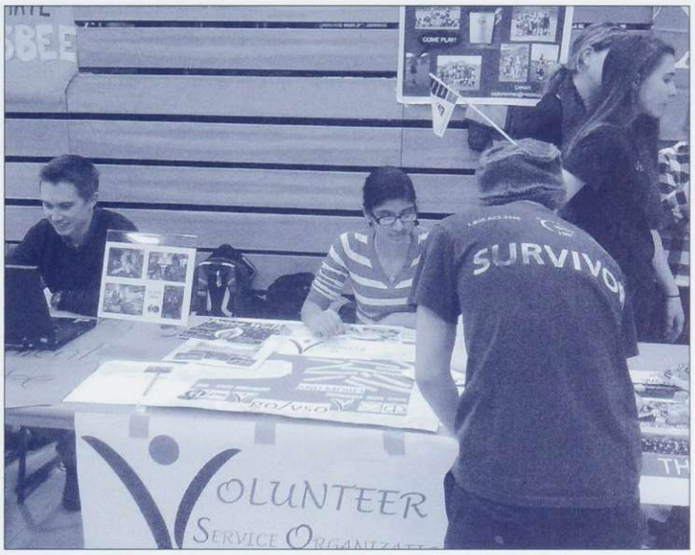
Volunteer Service Organization



The Volunteer Services Organization (VSO) creates one time non-committal volunteer opportunities for Middlebury students, events ranging from Pumpkin Carving to the Helen Porter Nursing Home Square Dance to Mothers Without Borders Brady Blanket events. VSO gets students involved in direct service, allowing students to find new interests, learn more about our community, meet new people, and have fun.

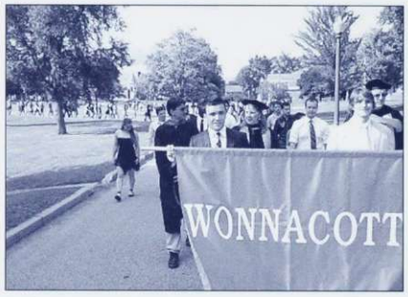
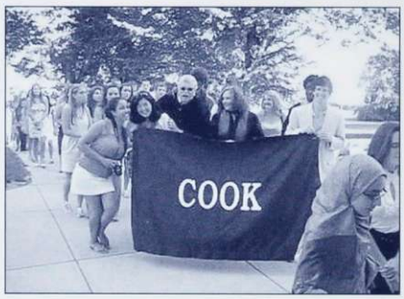
The Commons





The residence halls are grouped into "living-learning communities," called Commons, which combine the academic, social, and residential components of college life. They also foster close and abiding relationships among the student residents and among the faculty and staff who are part of their Commons.
